

BRILLION PUBLIC LIBRARY MUNCH-A-MOVIES

Come travel and experience the country we live in through Sentimental Reflections: America's heritage in story, scenery & song. Each feature ends with a bit of Trivia at the end.

SCHEDULE

TUESDAY, FEB 9 12 NOON

Cover Story: World's Largest Toy Museum located in Branson, Missouri; Scenic America: Florida's Ochlockonee River and the state park; On a Musical Note: American Banjo Museum; Famous Places: Savannah, Georgia; Time Capsule: Historic Winter Scenes including winter sports. (Winter 2014)

TUESDAY, FEB 16 12 NOON

Cover Story: Frank Lloyd Wright and a look at his early days and his becoming a famous architect; Scenic America: Cloudland Canyon State Park in western Georgia; On a Musical Note: Jubilant Singers of Cincinnati, Ohio; Time Capsule: Doolittle Raiders' Toast; Off the Beaten Path: Ashe County, North Carolina; Winter Feature: A look at North Carolina and its Fraser fir trees. (Winter 2013)

TUESDAY, FEB 23 12 NOON

Cover Story: Flag Day's Origins in Waubeka, Wisconsin; Scenic America: Ponce De Leon Inlet south of Daytona Beach; On a Musical Note: Mandolin Orchestra of Louisville, Kentucky; Famous Faces: Red Skelton Festival; Time Capsule: San Francisco in 1955; Seasonal Feature: Blooms and Berries Farm Market in Loveland, Ohio. (Summer 2015)

TUESDAY, MAR 1 12 NOON

Cover Story: Fireworks Family located in Loveland, Ohio; Scenic America: Watkins Glen State Park in the Finger Lakes region of New York; On a Musical Note: Scott Joplin Festival held in Sedalia, Missouri; Off the Beaten Path: Watertown, New York; Time Capsule: You bet your life featuring Groucho Marx; Seasonal Feature: Southwestern Ohio sailing club teaching sailing and holding races. (Summer 2014)

BRING YOUR LUNCH!
WE'LL FURNISH THE COFFEE!

TUESDAY, MAR 8 12 NOON

Cover Story: Down on the farm in Rio Grande, Ohio for a Bob Evans Farm Festival; Scenic America: Pennsylvania Plateau; On a Musical Note: Traditionally German features dancers and musicians from Germany who join their American counterparts; Time Capsule: Behringer-Crawford Museum in Covington, Kentucky; Off the Beaten Path: Lewes, Delaware; Seasonal Feature: Oktoberfest Zinzinnati , which is the largest Oktoberfest in the United States (Autumn 2015)

TUESDAY, MAR 15 12 NOON

Cover Story: Gilmore Car Museum in Michigan; Scenic America: Niagara Falls; On a Musical Note: Kentucky Music Hall of Fame; Time Capsule: Remembering Betty Boop who came to popularity in the 1930s; Off the Beaten Path: Metamora, Indiana; Seasonal Feature: Sauerkraut Festival in Waynesville, Ohio. (Autumn 2014)

TUESDAY, MAR 22 12 NOON

Cover Story: Remembering the 1950s from the Ohio History Connection; Scenic America: Oregon's Rogue River; On a Musical Note: Harpeth Rising, a group of 3 classically trained musicians; Time Capsule: Kentucky Fried Chicken and the place where Harland Sanders first introduced it are featured; Off the Beaten Path: Dodge City, Kansas and the Old West; Seasonal Feature: Fishermen on the Roaring River in Missouri. (Spring 2015)

Movies are held in the Lower Level of the Library! Ride the elevator or walk the stairs and enjoy a nostalgic look at America. Bring along a lunch if you choose and enjoy a hot cup of coffee. Movies last around any hour.

MUNCH-A-MOVIES